

Engineering History

In 2018, the Institution of Civil Engineers celebrates the 200th anniversary of its founding in 1818.

Alongside the Institution, ICE Publishing books have provided the first-hand accounts and published records of the most significant projects and engineers of the last 200 years and into the modern day.

The Railway Metropolis: How planners, politicians and developers shaped modern London

Michael Schabas

978-0-7277-6180-4 / 296pp / 2016 / Hardbound / £48.00 / $78.50

Biographical Dictionary of Civil Engineers in Great Britain and Ireland - Volume 3: 1890-1920

Edited by RC McWilliam and M Chrimes

978-0-7277-5834-7 / 776pp / 2014 / Hardbound / £224.00 / $355.50

The Contractors

Hugh Ferguson and Mike Chrimes

978-0-7277-5830-9 / 320pp / 2013 / Hardbound / £42.00 / $80.50

The Civil Engineers

Hugh Ferguson

978-0-7277-4143-1 / 276pp / 2011 / Hardbound / £50.00 / $73.00

Civil Engineering Heritage Scotland – Highlands and Islands

Paxton and Shipway

978-0-7277-3488-4 / 288pp / 2007 / Paperbound / £32.00 / $47.00

Civil Engineering Heritage Scotland – The Lowlands and Borders

Paxton and Shipway

978-0-7277-3487-7 / 408pp / 2007 / Paperbound / £32.00 / $47.00

Civil Engineering Heritage Scotland (2 volume set)

Paxton and Shipway

978-0-7277-3447-1 / 668pp / 2007 / Paperbound / £48.00 / $85.50

Thomas Telford: 250 Years of Inspiration

Civil Engineering Editorial Panel

978-0-7277-3500-3 / 64pp / 2007 / Paperbound / £24.00 / $32.00

